Genoua, April 25.

THe 21. Instant arrived here the George Captain Moone in ten days from Marseilles, bound for Spain. The Sarah from Ireland; And the Loyal O Porto Merchant. The Pope has sent an Officer to raise here 200 Seamen for his Gallies which are to joyn with those of Malta.

Marseilles, May 1. On the 29th past eleven Gallies parted from hence for Thoulon, five more will follow to morrow, which with four others that went out some days before, will make up the number of 20 Gallies; they are to joyn with as many Men of War, that are now ready to sail from Thoulon, and both Ships and Gallies will be commanded by Monsieur du Quesne; and are it's said designed for the Coast of Catalonia.

Vienna, April 23. Our Letters from Hungary give an account, that General Caprara having understood at his coming to Neusol, that the Turks in Newheusel were reduced to the last extremity through want of Provisions, he had commanded several Regiments to march thither, to block up the place so close, that the Garison might not be able to receive any supply from the Country People of the Neighborhood, by which means it's believed they will in a very short time be necessitated to yield that Fortress. All imaginable diligence is used to advance the Fortifications of this place; And a great Bridge is making here over the Danube. Count Vecchi hastens the Equipage of the Gallies and other small Vessels, which are to be employed on the Danube under his command, and promises himself he shall be able to do the Emperor great service with them.

Linz, April 27. The Deputies that were here from Count Teckeley, have left this place since our last, not being suffered to stay here any longer; The Proposals they made were so ill received by the Emperor, that He did not think fit to return any answer to them; And the Deputies were told that Count Teckeley must have other thoughts, than it appears by these Propositions he has, before he can expect the Emperor's Pardon. Here is a report that Count Teckeley is gone for Poland to pray that King's Interposition on his behalf, but we know not what ground there is for it. The Turks have made several Overtures for a Peace, and now lately by the hands of the Prince of Transylvania, but they have been rejected; and the Envoy that Prince sent hither on this Errand, is gone home again. They write from Neusol that 6000 Imperialists do block up Newheusel, and that the place is so streightned, that they cannot hold out much longer; And there are other Letters which tell us, that a Body of Turks were sent to relieve it, but that they found some Defiles which they were to pass so well secured by the Christians, that they durst not venture to go on. The preparations for the Campagne are made with all possible diligence; and we are assured that the Emperor's Army will be in the Field before the end of the next Month; and that they will besiege Buda: The King of Poland makes likewise great preparations on his side, and will certainly begin this Campagne with the siege of Caminice.

Francfort, May 3. The Elector of Bavaria has appointed the Rendezvous of his Troops to be on the 6th Instant at Straubingen; It's said that with them will joyn 4 or 5000 Imperialists commanded by Major General Dunewaldt; and that they will march under the command of his Electoral Highness towards the Rhine.

Hamburgh, May 5. Our Letters from Berlin of the third Instant tell us, that the Elector of Brandenburg had called all his General Officers to Potsdam, to hold a Council of War: That he had sent orders to his Troops to be in a readiness to march: That an Envoy was arrived there from the Elector of Saxony, and had had several Conferences with the Brandenburg Ministers upon the present affairs: And that there was much discourse again of a Marriage between the Electoral Prince of Brandenburg and the Princess of Hanover. The Danish Troops that are quartered in the Dutchy of Holstein begin to move; The Count de Roye is now in Holstein to prepare things against the arrival of the King of Denmark, who is expected there about the middle of this Month.

Cologne, May 5. All the French Troops in these parts have orders to march under the command of Monsieur de Choiseul, to joyn the Army before Luxemburg. The Baron de Weitz, Envoy Extraordinary from the Elector of Bavaria, is preparing for his departure from hence, after having had several Conferences with the Ministers of our Elector. Yesterday passed through this City the Baron Del Val, Envoy from the Marquis de Grana, in his way towards Francfort. The Burghermasters of Liege that were lately displaced by the Commonalty of that City, are come hither to complain thereof to the Elector of Cologne their Prince.

Brussels, May 5. We expect with much impatience, the return of the Extraordinary Courier which the Marquis de Grana dispatched the 18th of the last Month for Madrid, to lay before the King of Spain the posture of Affairs on this side. The Mareschal de Crequi came before Luxemburg the 28th of the last Month, the place having been invested the day before. On Wednesday last an Officer sent by the Prince de Chimay the Governor, to give the Marquis de Grana an account of the condition they are in, arrived here; and by him we understand that the French had not broke ground on the first Instant when he came from thence. Monsieur de Montal was posted on the third instant with the Troops under his command at Chiney; and it's said that he is going to form a Camp upon the Meuse.

Brussels, May 9. The Most Christian King is still at Condé, and his Army encamped between that place and Valenciennes. On Sunday last passed through this place an Express, who came from that Court, being charged with Letters for the French Ambassador at the Hague. The only news we have here concerning the Siege of Luxemburg, is, That the French intended to open their Trenches as last night; And that the French Troops in the Bishoprick of Cologne are marching to joyn the Mareschal de Crequi. The Duke de Vejar, is gone privately coming to it, which makes us hope that this place will be very suddenly in the hands of the Imperialists. The Elector of Bavaria parted from hence yesterday, and is gone to the Rendezvous of his Forces; It is not yet certainly known whither they will march towards the Rhine, or act in Hungary this Campagne. The Sieur Heuvel, whom the Emperor sent some time since with Letters to the Czars of Moscovy, is come back, and reports, that there is a great inclination in that Court to enter into the League between the Emperor, the King of Poland, &c. against the Turks.

Copenhagen, April 20. The King has sent orders to his Troops in Seland and Funen to march the beginning of the next Month. The Count de Roye and several other principal Officers parted from hence the 15th Instant for Holstein, to give the necessary orders concerning the Rendezvous of his Maj sty's Forces. The Minister that was sent hither by the Dukes of Lunenburg, to desire his Majesty to withdraw his Troops out of Lawenburg and Mecklenburg, has been answered, That his Majesty will do it so soon as those Countries have satisfied him for the Quarters which were assigned him by the Emperor during the last War.

Hamburg, May 2. The Count de Roye, General of the King of Denmark's Forces, is arrived in Holstein; The general Rendezvous of the Danish Troops is appointed to be upon Cropper Heath; and it's said that the King is expected there about the middle of the next Month.

Cologne, May 2. The last week arrived here an Envoy from the Elector of Bavaria, who hath had Audience of the Elector of Cologne, and been several times in Conference with his Ministers. The Bishop of Strasbourg and the Marquis de Choiseul are gone for Munster. It's said that this City will receive a Garison of the Troops of the Circle of Westphalia. They write from Wurtsburg that the Troops of the Circle of Franconia are to Rendezvous the 8th of the next Month.

Hague, May 5. The third Instant the Marquis del Castel Moncayo, Envoy Extraordinary from Spain, gave in a Memorial to the States General, wherein he represents to them; That being with the Marquis de Grana at Brussels, he received a Copy of the Memorial presented by the Ambassador of France on the 29th past, and that it had been thereupon resolved that he (the said Envoy) should immediately return to the Hague to acquaint the States that the orders which the Marquis de Grana and the said Envoy have from the King their Master, are the same they have heretofore declared to them, to wit, not to hearken to these Proposals of France. The States of Holland, after a recess of some days, met again on Wednesday last; when they had before them the French Ambassador's Memorial; It is not publickly known what resolution they took upon it: But it's said that all the Towns of this Province, except one or two (which have not yet declared themselves) are for accepting the Truce proposed by France. The Prince of Orange's Horses and Equipage that were sent towards Brabant, are come back; and the general opinion here is, that the Troops of this State will be recalled from Flanders, except 8000 men, which will remain in the Fortified places there.

Paris, May 6. His Most Christian Maj sty arrived the 28th of the last Month at Cambray, the next day at Valenciennes, and the 30th at Condé; and the same day his Majesty went to view his Troops which were encamped in two Lines, fronting the River Escarpe, the right towards Condé, and the left towards Valenciennes: And his Majesty sent a detachement of 10000 men to Luxemburg under the command of the Chevalier de Tilladet and the Marquis d'Uxelles, Mareschals de Camp. The City of Luxemburg was invested the 27th of the last Month, and the next day the Mareschal de Crequi came before the place, and caused the Camp to be marked out. Forty Pieces of Cannon and 30 Mortar Pieces have been brought thither from Metz, and great quantities of Ammunition from Verdun, Thionville, and Longwy; Ten thousand Pioneers have been summoned in from the Neighboring Country; and provision is made of Oats and Hay to serve 10000 Horse for six weeks; Two Bridges have been built, one on the River Orne, and the other on the side of Trier; and the Trenches will be opened this night. The Sieur de Fourbin, whom the King had made one of the Lieutenant-Generals of his Army, died some days agone at Peronne, having been taken ill there as he was going to the Army.

London, April 30. This day James Holloway was Executed, being drawn upon a Sledge to Tyburn, and there Hanged and Quartered.
